Genius vs. Talent, or Physics vs. Art? Picasso and Einstein debate in a 1904 Parisian cafe, when a "visitor" from the future arrives with a third dimension to the hilarious discussion.

April 23, 24, 25, May 1, 2, 3, 7, 8, 9

Betrayals, lies, morality...friends in a 1960 London suburb become victims of the choice between friendship and duty. As Publius Syrus states, "Trust, like the soul, never returns once it is gone."

by John-Michael Tebelak
and Stephen Schwartz

The Gospel according to Matthew, this "modern" 70's music set to lyrics from traditional hymns, tells the story of the last seven days of Christ's life. Unique storytelling includes clowning, pantomime, and charades. Some familiar songs include, "Day by Day," "Turn Back, O Man," and "Bless the Lord."

A sentimental comedy for all ages, about a talented actress mired down in the roles she plays, personally and professionally. In the acting world, "older and better" is just "older." This is a sweet journey of self-discovery and renewal.

August 13, 14, 15, 21, 22, 23, 27, 28, 29

by Alan Ayckbourn

Four couples, three bedrooms, one night, and a humorous view of the hard truths in everyday relationships. This British import brings plenty of gentle absurdity and laugh-out-loud comedy!
